The scenario is an important type of task description. Based on the persona, we create scenarios that show how SUNK works. We use storyboards to visualize the scenarios and make it easier for users to understand. Basically, a light will go on when people step into an area that will be submerged in the recent future.